

We are very concern about the use of cellular telephone in flight. As flight attendants there is enough going on on board without the noise, ringing, and talking of cell phone in flight. It also would give terrorist another easy means of communication with each other. Please do not allow this to pass.